When Jesus heard about the illness of His friend, Lazarus, He responded, "This illness is not to end in death; rather it is for God's glory, that through it the Son of God may be glorified". Every aspect of our lives - our gifts as well as our sufferings - can, if surrendered to Christ, lead to blessing for others and ourselves.

VOCATION AWARENESS VIEW: Untie him, and let him go free. It is a humbling privilege to shout those words in the name of Jesus. You, too, can offer freedom and life to those bound in death. Consider giving life through ministry as a priest, sister, or brother. (John 11:1-45) -Vocations Committee

FIFTH SUNDAY of LENT

YOUR HELP IS NEEDED: Do you know of anyone in our parish community who is sick, elderly, or homebound? We are in great need of people who will notify us of parishioners who might want to be visited, and/or receive Holy Communion especially during this Lenten Season and the upcoming Easter Season. There is no way that the church can be aware of these people unless we are contacted by a relative or friend. Please call us if you know of someone who might want to be visited, and/or receive Holy Communion. Parish Office at 792-6168, Catherine Tjia at 794-2134, or Randy Canale at 797-2210.

SPIRITUAL DIRECTION presumes that God communicates through the ordinary human experience, and in that experience is found God's invitations, urgings and confirmations. Here at Christ the King we offer the opportunity for one-on-one assistance in this process of discernment. Trained companions will walk the journey with you, seeking clarity and encouragement toward God's movement in your life, by meeting together once a month in a confidential setting. Please call or email Charlotte Amato, camato@ctkcathedral.org or 792-6168, ext. 218, to begin this unique spiritual pathway.

SUPER AUCTION!

Welcome to Our Church House

The mission of Footsteps in Faith is "to strengthen Christ's Church by educating Catholics and Protestants on the true history and doctrines of the Catholic Church". The goals of the program are "To raise a new generation of new Catholics who are able to defend their faith through the knowledge of Holy Scripture, Holy Tradition and the Catechism. To recover fallen-away Catholics by correcting misconceptions and bring them back into full communion with the Church. Reach out to our Protestant brethren and educate them on the truth and traditions we share and take focus away from our differences". A few weeks ago Jesus and the End Times - A Catholic View of the Last Days, 2008 Biblical Conference, was offered by our diocese as part of our Diocese's Silver Jubilee. Some of the topics addressed by speakers were: "What Jesus Really Taught about the Last Days", "What will happen before Christ's Second Coming", "The Meaning of the Beast and the Mark of the Beast (666)", and "Jerusalem's role in the End Times". I had debated about registering and thinking what impact will the conference have in my life and would I have time to attend? I was suddenly invited by a friend and with my decision made for me the results proved to be grateful of having attended. I came away feeling and thinking that the conference was beautiful and the materials were very timely. The guest speakers addressed areas that I was not that familiar with. I was equally moved, since it had been a while that I have heard parishioners or participants so spiritually moved about what was being spoken concerning our Catholic faith. I even heard shouts of "AMEN" and "Praise God". I have to admit that some of the individuals in attendance were truly expressing how they felt about our Catholic faith. I must admit I, too, got choked up and caught up in the moment of how long it has been that I have heard the Word of God have such strong impact on a group. We all have the opportunity to educate ourselves about our Catholic faith. Walk into any bookstore and the shelves are lined with numerous topics that will address our interest, questions and concerns about Catholicism. The call to learn more about our faith is as close as we want to make it. The Footsteps in Faith Website, www.footstepsinfaith.com, offers sites for reading and listening materials, along with resource links. Our invitation to learn about our faith are numerous at Christ the King and in our Lubbock Diocese. Our decision to participate hinges on what obstacles we place in our way of saying yes. Our thanks to the Lubbock Diocese Knights of Columbus for sponsoring the conference, David Powell for organizing the event and Holy Spirit for hosting the conference. I do encourage those who participated in Footsteps in Faith Conference to email their comments to footsteps@footstepsinfaith.com. Our continued support of educational Catholic programs in our region can only strengthen our lives and those of whom we worship and live with. "Draw near to God, and he will draw near to you." (James 4:5) -Latha Tucker, Communications, 783-0668

OPERATION RICE BOWL: Jesus celebrates the gift of life by restoring it to his friend Lazarus. Catholic Relief Services health initiatives seek to preserve this gift and inspire local volunteers to work for the health of their communities. Your participation in Operation Rice Bowl helps CRS restore a feeling of hope for millions across the globe. A container will be provided in the gathering space next weekend where you may place your Rice Bowls, or you may bring them to the parish office. Together, we continue to plant seeds of real hope throughout our world and to foster their growth.
